

Dr. Sahadev H K is a dedicated Internal Medicine physician currently serving at Holy Cross Hospital, Chikmagaluru. He holds an MD in Internal Medicine and has developed expertise in managing a wide spectrum of medical conditions, with special interest in diabetes, cardiovascular risk assessment, and preventive healthcare.

He served as an Executive Committee Member of API Karnataka (2025–2026), actively contributing to academic and organizational initiatives. An engaged member of the Association of Physicians of India, he has participated in various state and national forums, including APICON, as a delegate and speaker.

Dr. Sahadev has authored national-level publications, reflecting his commitment to academic excellence and evidence-based medicine. He is passionate about strengthening API by enhancing member engagement, encouraging research, and supporting young physicians in their professional growth.